Consumer Notes:

Lots of stuff this time around, and there are a few new notes in the song this month. First, there's the City Hunter movie, from the very long running TV series (which we'll be seeing a lot of over the next year). There's also the first installment of Knights of Ramune (Lamune + 40) which is very much worth seeing. Manga releases a new Blackjack movie, and from Urban Vision comes DNA Sights 999.9, a new and very cool Matsumoto (Star Blazers) project set in the Galaxy Express 999 Universe. In the Beginning, Osamu Tezuka's (Astro Boy, Kimba) Old Testament Bible Stories series, brings a new genre of anime into the mix, and the three very infamous Excalibur dubs of Cream Lemon [Gonad the Barbarian, Offenders of the Universe, and Pandora] become available for sale this month. We've actually seen copies of the Tenchi Muyo DVD set in our warehouse (and a TON of them have already shipped) so you can order this with confidence now. Finally, (and with all due modesty) the first volume of Irresponsible Captain Tylor dubbed will ship toward the end of the month... we fully expect this to be quite big.

JEFF'S PICK(S) OF THE MONTH

If I were modest, I'd pick those Lain soundtrack CDs (which are really way cool) and DNA Sights 999.9. If I were honest as well, I'd add the Irresponsible Captain Tylor dubs also. Some of the voice talent should be very recognizable to the ear, especially if you've seen Slayers.
